

Rochester Public Library
Readers Services Division
101 2nd ST SE
Rochester, MN 55904

Homebound Program

Readers Services Division
101 Second Street SE
Rochester, MN 55904
507-328-2302

www.rochesterpubliclibrary.org

ROCHESTER PUBLIC LIBRARY HOMEBOUND PROGRAM

If you live in the city of Rochester and you are restricted to your home temporarily or permanently because of illness, physical or other disability, the weather, or lack of transportation, you may use the Rochester Public Library Homebound Service Program.

HOW OFTEN ARE MATERIALS DELIVERED?

Library materials are delivered on the third Thursday of the month by a special team of volunteers.

IS THERE ANY CHARGE FOR THIS PROGRAM?

No. This service is provided free for residents of Olmsted County, with the help of library volunteers.

HOW DO I REGISTER FOR THE HOMEBOUND PROGRAM?

Complete the attached Homebound Service Application OR

Call 328-2302 to register for this program.

Homebound Application

For more information about our Homebound Program, call 328-2302 or send in this application and we'll call you.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Is this address a senior residence or nursing home? Yes No

If yes, Please Name: _____

Telephone: _____

Library card number:

1 1018 _____

I don't have a card at this time

Reason for requesting homebound service:

Do you require books in large print?

Yes No

If the title you request is not available in large print, will you accept regular print?

Yes No

How many items do you want to have delivered each month?

Books _____

Audio Books _____

Other _____

What are your favorite authors and types of books?
